Where

The campus of the University of Central Arkansas (UCA) in Conway

What

YLF is an exciting five-day leadership program for 11th and 12th grade high school students with disabilities. It provides information on everything from assistive technology to resources that can help you as you transition to college, employment, and independent living. Other highlights of the week typically include meeting dignitaries at the State Capitol, touring the Governor's Mansion and other social activities. You will also make lifelong friendships with other students from all over the state and connect with mentors!

How

Applications are now being accepted and are accessible at www.ace.arkansas.gov. Go to the YLF page (through Arkansas Rehabilitation Services/Special Programs/Governor's Commission on People with Disabilities) and follow the prompts to download the application. Deadline for applications is December 1, 2014.

If you have any questions or need a special formatted application (Braille or large print), contact Darlene Owens at (800) 330-0632 or email darlene.owens@arkansas.gov.

Cost

There is no cost for you to attend. It is ABSOLUTELY FREE!!!
