

Wise MoneyPower Conference Non-Cluster Specific

(Across-The-Board = Non-Program Specific, Prerequisite = wise Financial Literacy Certification)

Name and Description of Project:

Teachers who have completed the wise Financial Literacy certification are eligible to attend the wise MoneyPower Conference in New York City, NY on Election Day. The trip will include additional curriculum components to enhance classroom instruction and promote financial literacy certification for students.

Major Activities:

Teachers must travel as a group and participate in work sessions while in New York as well as required attendance at the MoneyPower Conference. Individual teacher assignments are determined by teacher interest and areas of focus and will be determined by the session leaders and the teacher prior to travel to New York.

Performance Indicator:

CTE Skill Attainment through certification

Measurement:

The success of this project will be measured by the number of students who obtain wise Financial Literacy certification as associated with the implementation of the program.

Professional Development:

Teachers must have attend professional development provided by ACE and obtained wise Financial Literacy certification prior to participation in this activity.

Instructional Materials/Supplies:

None required

Equipment:

None required but possible with justification and prior approval by FACS Program Manager.